

CALL FOR EXPERTS

Representing environmental interests in the development of Ecodesign product regulations

Application deadline: 30/06/2017

ECOS is looking for experts of various product groups to represent environmental interests in the development of Ecodesign & Energy Labelling Regulations. Experts will provide technical and scientific input into discussions, in accordance with the related policy context and ECOS strategy.

With over 15 years of experience in standards and technical policies, ECOS represents 43 European, international and national members, including WWF, EEB, T&E and Friends of the Earth Europe. ECOS is an official member of the Ecodesign Consultation Forum. Find out more about ECOS on: www.ecostandard.org

The experts should have expertise in one or several of the below product groups:

- Air conditioners
- Tumble driers
- Vacuum cleaners
- Space heaters & Water heaters
- Local space heaters
- Compressors
- Tyres

The nominated experts will be responsible for:

- Providing technical input e.g. comments on preparatory studies and legislative proposals, in close cooperation with the ECOS responsible team member
- Monitoring the development of the preparatory study and reporting to ECOS accordingly
- Presenting ECOS' views in stakeholder meetings

Interested candidates should be able to demonstrate in-depth knowledge in the specific product group(s). Experience with and understanding of the EU Ecodesign and Energy Labelling Directives, as well as energy and resource efficiency policies will be considered a strong asset. Candidates should also demonstrate a strong commitment to environmental NGO values. Fluency in English is a must.

ECOS offers:

- Daily remuneration as set out by ECOS funders for preparation of meetings, participation and reporting, as well as for any other tasks performed between meetings;
- Reimbursement of travel costs;
- Per diem to cover accommodation and subsistence costs.

If interested, please send your CV and cover letter to nerea.ruiz@ecostandard.org, including mentions of relevant work and the product groups you are interested in, and where you have seen this call for experts.
