

Coalition Manager

Application deadline: 6 March 2022

10 February 2022

We are looking for a highly motivated Coalition Manager to join our team and lead a multi-stakeholder coalition on the decarbonisation of the built environment, specifically cement and concrete. You are skilled at building consensus, experienced at EU advocacy, appreciative of the needs of first mover innovative companies, and passionate about decarbonisation.

About ECOS: ECOS is an international NGO with a network of members and experts advocating for environmentally friendly technical standards, policies and laws. We ensure the environmental voice is heard when they are developed and drive change by providing expertise to policymakers and industry players, leading to the implementation of strong environmental principles. ECOS is headquartered in Brussels and has an exceptional team of 24 staff supported by a network of over 50 technical experts and more than 50 member organisations.

Your main tasks will be to:

- Shape and lead a multi-stakeholder coalition to decarbonise the cement and concrete sector, coordinating a diverse network of partners (progressive companies, think-tanks, NGOs), all working towards the same objective
- Ensure the Coalition's voice is heard in relevant policy fora, notably the European institutions
- Produce impactful materials and strategies in response to targets and opportunities stemming from policy and standardisation
- Be the spokesperson of the Coalition, developing clear and impactful messages
- Drive and coordinate an ambitious project involving diverse stakeholders and several team members.

Skills and experience required:

- Minimum 5 years of relevant professional experience, preferably in the environmental field
- Demonstrated experience in developing & implementing strategies to achieve change, ideally by leading multi-stakeholder coalitions or campaigns
- Knowledge of the buildings and/or industrial policies at national, European or international level
- Commitment to the values, vision and mission of environmental NGOs
- Strong analytical skills & ability to translate technical content into relatable information
- Excellent time and project management skills
- Ability to work effectively both independently and as part of a team
- Excellent writing, communication, networking, diplomatic and negotiation skills.
- Fluent English, other languages an asset

What we offer:

- An open-ended Belgian contract with a competitive salary package according to the ECOS salary scale and depending on skills and relevant experience of the candidate
- A benefits package (meal vouchers, pension scheme, 13th month, excellent insurances, public transport, eco-cheques etc.)
- A flexible, dynamic, and very pleasant international working environment
- Being part of a dedicated team whose common goal it is to protect the environment
- A commitment to an inclusive and empowering approach to addressing our environmental challenges

How to apply:

Applicants should send a CV and cover letter by no later than 6 March 2022 to: info@ecostandard.org, with the subject line "Coalition Manager: your name". The first round of interviews will take place shortly after the application deadline. We regret that only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

ECOS is an equal opportunity employer that is committed to diversity and inclusion in the workplace. At ECOS, we believe diversity is what makes our work richer and our team stronger. Your race, nationality, colour, gender, age, religion, disability, status, or sexual orientation are NOT important to us, we value your knowledge and commitment. If you believe you can contribute to our common goal, we encourage you to apply.
